

KNOW THE SIGNS

Warning Signs of Student Gambling

Change the Game was developed to raise awareness of the realities of youth gambling. Your students may be exposed to gambling behavior more often than you know. The first step toward making a difference is knowing what to look for.

GAMBLING WARNING SIGNS IN STUDENTS

- Unexplained absences from school or classes
- Sudden drop in grades
- Interest in extracurricular activities has lessened
- Withdrawing from friends
- Money student should have (such as lunch money) goes missing
- Bragging about gambling activities
- Unusual interest in sports scores
- Questionable explanation for new items or loss of valuable possessions
- Uncharacteristically forgetting appointments or other important dates